A. Candidate's self-assessment of work done since the last review (ctd.)

C. Other components

If your thesis has substantial components which fall outside the word count but will take up a significant amount of space and require a significant amount of time to prepare, please specify these components and indicate their state of completion. For example: substantial appendices, a database or other digital component, or a significant number of images, figures, tables, drawings. It is not necessary to specify standard components such as Bibliography, Abbreviations, Abstract, Summary.

D. Schedule for completion

Provide a workplan for the period between 1st May and the submission deadline (normally 30th September), indicating outstanding work and completion dates for individual tasks.

E. Submission

Do you foresee any problems which might prevent submission of your thesis on or before the deadline?

F. Declaration

I confirm that I have fairly represented the state of completion of my thesis and outstanding work.
