

Dublin Cemeteries Trust and School of Histories and Humanities
at Trinity College Dublin

invite you to our

Glasnevin Spring Lecture Series, 2025
Sugar, Food, Beer and Beaches
in Irish History

THURSDAY

6th March (Thursday)

Finola O'Kane (UCD)

Dublin's eighteenth-century sugar landscapes:
Trade triangles with France, Saint-Domingue (Haiti) and Jamaica

THURSDAY

13th March (Thursday)

Máirtín Mac Con Iomaire (TU Dublin)

'Exploring the Making of Irish Food History: A Companion'

WEDNESDAY

19th March (Wednesday)

Susan Flavin (TCD)

Discovering the Past Through Beer:
A Special Film Screening and Discussion

WEDNESDAY

26th March (Wednesday)

Paul Rouse (UCD)

Dublin's Riviera: Dollymount Strand and Bull Island

All lectures will begin at 7.30pm.

*Please note the first two lectures are on Thursday; the second two are on Wednesday.

Venue: Milestone Gallery, Glasnevin Cemetery, Finglas Road, Dublin D11 XA32.

Attendance is Free but booking is advised due to the limited space.

Please contact: booking@dctrust.ie or info@dctrust.ie.

Or you can ring on: +353 (0)1 882 6550